

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

CHICAGO &amp; ALTON RY.

TIME TABLE

(In effect May 29, 1910.)

EAST BOUND TRAINS

14	Daily Mo. State Express, Bloom.	10:50 am
15	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "
16	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "
17	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "
18	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "
19	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "
20	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "

WEST BOUND TRAINS

21	Daily The Early Bird, Kansas City, 4:00 am	4:00 am
22	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "
23	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "
24	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "
25	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "
26	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "
27	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "
28	" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " "

Stop on Signal

Dr. G. E. Scrutchfield

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist.

FITTING GLASSES

Office Farmers Savings Bank Bldg. Rooms 237-238

Local Items

Dr. Marie Morris made a professional visit to Armstrong Tuesday.

Jesse Hensick of River View was a pleasant caller at this office on Monday.

Next Sunday is the day set for the annual decoration day of the I. O. O. F. lodge.

Miss Shirley Thompson, of Lamar, is visiting former friends here this week.

Frank E. Mitchell, who travels for the American Tobacco Co., is home for a week's vacation.

Try our fine cigars and tobaccos. Williams the confectioner, south side of square. 22-23.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Reidenbach were over from New Frankfort Sunday guests at Robt. Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Schanz of near Koping were here Monday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schanz.

MILLINERY AT HALF PRICE. Beginning Friday, I will sell trimmed hats at half price.

Mabel Smith, Marshall, Mo.

True Swinney and wife of Kansas City are the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. J. T. Featherstone.

Mr. Barnds of the LaCross Lumber Company was looking after business matters in Louisiana, Mo., Monday.

H. Gorman, Will Earp, John and Lawson Byars were business visitors in Marshall Monday from the west part of the county.

Sollie Wronker accompanied his father on his trip Monday and will visit the State Capitol and other points before returning.

MILLINERY AT HALF PRICE. Beginning Friday I will sell trimmed hats at half price.

Mabel Smith, Marshall, Mo.

T. W. Lacy, of Kansas City spent last Sunday with friends in this place and left on the Hummer for Chicago on a business trip.

Fresh cream bread kept on hand at Williams Confectionary, South side square. 22-23.

Rev. J. S. Smith of East Arrow Street went to Wichita, Kas. today to spend two weeks visiting his son J. B. Smith and family.

E. Hollister of the Ballew & Hollister Lumber Co., spent Monday and Tuesday of this week in Kansas City transacting business.

Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Nuckles and children of Slater, left Friday afternoon for San Francisco, for a several weeks' visit to relatives.

Mrs. Will Earp and daughter, Miss Beulah, were guests of Geo. Burnside and wife of East Marshall, for a few days last week.

W. P. Wisdom and Ed Gibson, stockmen of Arrow Rock, were transacting business in this city last Tuesday and the former made the Republican office a pleasant and substantial visit.

Mrs. Helen Long, of Neosho, Ill., visited her father, A. L. Preston, several days this week. Also her brother, A. L. Preston. From here she went to Chicago to visit before returning home.

Prof. J. H. Kenner will attend Lincoln Institute commencement at Jefferson City next week. He is president of the alumni association.

Dr. J. E. McDonald and Len Murrell, curators of Central Female College at Lexington, were in attendance at the commencement of that institution last week.

When you are fatigued step in at Williams and have a cooling ice cream soda. The purest and most wholesome syrups only. 22-23.

J. H. McChesney and B. J. Rector, proprietors of the Marshall Automobile Co., went to Kansas City Tuesday on business for the Company.

Rev. J. E. Abbott, Dr. E. C. Gordon of Lexington, Mo., and Judge Sam Davis, conducted the installation services at Mt. Olive last Sunday.

Walter Scott Modell, city passenger Agt. of the M. K. & T. R. Co., of St. Louis, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Chaffee, Jr., and family.

Daniel Carroll and daughter, Miss Irene returned home last Thursday from Lexington, where the latter has been attending Central College.

L. O'Howell, and family of College addition moved to Kansas City last Monday. Mr. O'Howell has accepted a position with T. W. Lacy installing light plants.

It is reported that Dave Van Meter of Miami has purchased the property owned and occupied by Mick Montague. Mr. VanMeter will move to Marshall shortly.

John Steinmetz, of Edwardsville, Ill., is looking after his farm near Saline City this week. He handed up his renewal at Slater Tuesday morning on his arrival.

Rich Keeth returned Tuesday afternoon from Tampico, Mexico, and reported having bought 430 acres of additional land there. Everything there is prosperous.

Miss Nora Swinney went to Slater Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Harry Reed, after spending the winter in Marshall with her sister, Mrs. J. T. Featherstone.

John H. Bates and family of Grand View, Mo. took possession Saturday of the property they recently purchased from L. E. Benedick. Mr. Benedick and family moved into their property on West Arrow street.

Carl Steinheimer, who is attending Baker University of Kansas, is expected home soon to spend his vacation with his parents. He will probably return to school and take up a course in the summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Coad drove to Waverly the first of the week to do some shopping and were the guests of friends in east Lafayette for a few hours. Mr. Coad is living on the Orear farm south of White's Island.

Mrs. Levi Kramer of near Waverly entertained the W. C. T. U. at her home last Thursday. Everybody spent a most enjoyable afternoon. Strawberries, ices and cakes were served during the evening.

George R. Crockett has severed his relation with the Marshall Acetylene Company, and becomes a member of the Abstract firm of Allen & Crockett. He will be glad to see his friends at his office in the Farmers Bank Building.

Gladys Steinheimer, who has been at work in Grand Island, Neb., will spend two weeks in the Company's home shop at Kansas City before coming to Marshall to spend a few days with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Steinheimer.

Will E. Woodson, of St. Joseph, was visiting with the family of James A. Gordon and wife of this week. Mr. Woodson was a prominent Sunday School man of the Christian church at this place a number of years ago.

Mrs. W. P. Fitzgerald of Arlington, Texas, who is the wife of a prominent evangelist of the Presbyterian church, has located in Marshall for the summer, occupying the residence at 735 Redman St. She has two sons attending summer school at M. V. C.

The Knights of Pythias and Pythian sisters of Slater decorated the graves of deceased members last Sunday. Both lodges met in Castle Hall at 2 p. m. and proceeded to the cemetery where their annual decoration was observed.

Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve Good for all Skin Diseases.

You Must Depend Upon Your Dealer

A great many men will honestly confess they don't know clothing quality—whether it's "all wool" or isn't. Yet all men do know when a pattern suits them. But for its wearing quality they must depend upon the dealer.

Schloss Bros. &amp; Co., of Baltimore, Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes and the L. System

makes are hand tailored from the finest American, English and Scottish wools. We guarantee them, and besides us, these great houses stand behind every garment we sell with their label in it.

So your only concern when you buy at this reliable store is to choose a pleasing pattern and secure a comfortable fit—our salesman know how to fit you whether you're athletic, lean, fat or tall.

The Style will take care of itself and of you. The fabrics are all wool—wool tested.

Rose &amp; Buckner

Biggest Shoe and Clothing Store in Marshall, Mo.

We acknowledge with thanks a very kind letter with enclosure of draft for renewal to the Republican from P. C. Bidstrup of the Carrollton Granite Monument Co., Carrollton, Mo. It does us good to have our friends thus remember us.

Jerome D. Eubank, formerly of Slater was judged of unsound mind and has been taken to the asylum at Nevada. His brother P. L. Eubank was appointed his guardian and expressed the belief that the afflicted man's troubles will be only temporary.

The big Auction sale at Marshall on June 16th will be a splendid time to buy a desirable lot. 50 lots to be sold at auction without reserve or by bid on the easy terms of 1-3 cash, balance in 6 and 12 months with 6 per cent interest or 3 per cent on deferred payments. Abstracts with every deed.

Dr. E. A. Gore of this city will attend the meeting in St. Louis, this week of the Missouri State Medical Association, where he will deliver an address before the Alumni of St. Louis University, in response to an invitation which he received from that body recently.

Many, Many of the successful men of today attribute their success directly to the purchase of a home. It inspires one to economize and accomplish something. Make the start at our auction sale. There are very few who fail when they determine that they are going to have a home. Abstract with every deed.

The M. V. C. Board of trustees at its last meeting provided a scholarship fund, the benefit of which will go the Marshall High School graduate who makes the highest record. This scholarship will enable any high school graduate making the best record to extend their course in the college without the cost of tuition.

One of the teams of the Merchant's delivery system took a run Tuesday across the south side of the square and out to the brick plant when they ran into a mud-hole and were stopped. It is reported the team became frightened at a motorcycle which was passing. The only damage done was to smash a wheel of a dray belonging to Mr. Trent.

Look elsewhere in this issue for the advertisement of the big auction sale of lots in Marshall, Mo., on June 16th. One good lot and $10.00 in gold given away. Attend the sale and get a free ticket. For white people. Color clause in every deed. Abstract from government with every deed. Meet your friends at the big lot sale in Marshall, Mo. on June 16th.

The elevator conductor of a tall office building, noticing that the colored janitor had ridden up with him several times that morning, remarked: "Sam, this is the fifth time I have taken you up but you have not come down with me." "Well, you see," Sam replied, "Ah been washin' windows on the 'leventh floor, and every now and 'gain ah misses ma hold and falls out."

Witt Ingraham and sister Miss Lula, of Slater, spent the day on last Monday, visiting in the family of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Smith and family. They were driven over Marshall during the afternoon and thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon meeting many old friends and noting the improvements of this city, which they have not visited for several years before.

Marshall schools are second to none. If you have children to educate you should attend the auction sale of town lots in Marshall on June 16th and buy a beautiful lot and save the middle man's profit. 50 lots at auction without reserve or by bid. Terms one-third cash, balance in 6 and 12 months with 6 per cent interest. One good lot and $10.00 given away, it costs you nothing for a free ticket. Come to this sale. Free band concert. Henry Realty Co.

On June 1st the C. & A. adopted what is known as the Walker System of merits. This company used the Walker system several years ago but for some reason abandoned it. By this plan the employees of the road will be given merit, or demerit marks as the individual record of each may deserve instead of being suspended as by the system first abandoned. It is thought the recently adopted plan will meet the hearty approval of the employees as well as the officials of the road.

We handle all kinds of nuts, and our prices are reasonable. Try them. Williams, south side of square. 22-23.

Mrs. Phil Reidenbach of Gilliam was visiting in Marshall Sunday.

Mrs. F. M. Holloway and son, Harold, are visiting in Mayview.

City Marshall Butts of Slater was in Marshall Sunday.

Miss Virgie Johnson of Arrow Rock is visiting friends in Marshall.

Stonewall White and wife were here from White's Island Wednesday.

Mrs. Tony Bacon has gone to Okmulgee, Okla., on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Frank Blackburn.

Stephen Downs was from north of town and remembered us kindly with a dollar.

Miss Hattie Beall is home from a six months' visit to her brother, Harry, in New Orleans.

Russell Nicholas of Kansas City is in Marshall to spend his vacation with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Berry Auigur.

England Bros. enjoyed a very pleasant visit from their brother-in-law Mr. Randolph of Tennessee last week.

E. E. Kidwell is a new merchant of Marshall, having opened up a grocery store in the R. S. Wisdom building near the C. & A. depot.

Will Oster and H. B. Weber, two of Waverly's hustling young merchants, attended the shoot here Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Myrtle Thomas left Saturday morning for her home in Kansas City accompanied by Miss Mildred Scheid who returned Monday.

Our sodas and ice creams are delicious. Try them and be refreshed. Williams, south side of square. 22-23.

Chas. Brown, one of Slater's prominent farmers, made us a substantial visit while here Wednesday.

Leslie Nicely navigated in from near Napton Wednesday and stopped his boat at the Republican office for a short call.

E. B. Clawson informs us that his brother, J. W., had sold his farm at Liberal, Kas., and moved to Ford, Kas.

Prof. and Mrs. E. S. Place expect to spend the summer in the East and have rented their home to Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tillery for the summer.

Hayden Colvert returned from Excelsior Springs Tuesday night where he had spent a few days for his health. Mrs. Colvert stayed for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Harre have moved to Goodman, Mo., where they have purchased a small farm. We regret to lose them but wish them much success in their new home.

A large delegation of Marshall business men went to Jefferson City Wednesday to confer with the officers of a shoe manufacturing concern in an effort to have a shoe factory located here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Buckner and daughter and Mrs. J. W. Carter are attending commencement at the State University. Wm. Buckner and Lee Carter are among the graduates.

Luella Kirtley, a 20 year old colored woman of Slater, was declared insane by the county court Tuesday morning and taken to the Fulton Asylum Tuesday by Deputy Sterling Price.

Among those who received degrees at the Missouri University at the commencement of that institution, June 9th, were Earl Newton, B. S., Marshall; Henry L. Preston, A. B., Odessa; John D. Frisco, Jr., A. B., Miami; Wm. T. Buckner, A. B., Marshall; and W. L. Carter, A. B., Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Orear and daughter, Virginia, and Miss Minnie Orear attended the birthday celebration in Kansas City on May 29th of Mrs. Anna Orear who was 53 years old that day. Of her nine children all but one were present, and the large gathering to do her honor was a happy one.

Don't be Annoyed

With skin troubles, chaps, pimples, black heads, eczema or sores. When one 25c box of Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve will cure you. Try it at once.